

Curriculum Vitae

Mag.a (phil.) Clara-Anna Egger

Institut für Zeitgeschichte

+43-1-4277-41247

clara-anna.egger@univie.ac.at

Research areas

Women's and Gender History, 20th Century Women's Rights Activism, Pacifism and Pacifist Movements, Travel History, Auto/-Biography Studies;

Research activities

10/2021-05/2022

Recipient of the Marietta-Blau Grant

10/2020-10/2023

Prae.-Doc. Position within the Vienna Doctoral School of Historical and Cultural Studies

Education

2020-

Doctoral Studies in Women's and Gender History (Department of Contemporary History, University of Vienna)

Doctoral thesis: "Practicing Feminist Internationalism: British and US-American Women's Rights Activists Traveling Inter-War Continental Europe"

2014-2020

Teacher Training Program English and History (University of Vienna),

Diploma thesis: „Unter dem Deckmantel der ‚Trümmerfrau‘“ - Die Homogenisierung der österreichischen Nachkriegsfrau in der Erinnerungskultur (German)

2016

Studies abroad at the Universitate Latvijas (Latvia)

Teaching experience

10/2021-02/2022

University Course (Guided Reading): Women Peacemakers before and after the Great War

2018-2020

Teaching Assistant (Wiener Volkshochschulen)

2016

Teaching Practice; Riga State Gymnasium Nr.3, Teaching position for English and History (Latvia)

Publications

Egger, Clara-Anna. Erinnerungs(un)würdig (?). In: Fernetzt - Junges Forschungsnetzwerk Frauen- und Geschlechtergeschichte (17. Jänner 2021) online unter: <https://www.univie.ac.at/fernetzt/20210118/>

Scientific Presentations & Talks

"International Networking and Friendship in the Women's Peace Movement 1914 – 1939" held at the Congress of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, Vienna, 9th July 2021.

"Yella Hertzka – Pioneer, Women's Right Activist, Internationalist, Pacifist, Jew and Expat" held at Gender and LGBTQ Questions 1921 – 2021, Vienna, 10th July 2021.

Workshops & Conferences

Microsoft Access for Historians, online course given by Dr. Harald Wendelin, organized with Dr.in Corinna Oesch, Vienna, 18th June 2021